

If I had my way, I would tighten up the Wisconsin No-Call law to prohibit any business from calling me. If I wish their services, I will call them. The present law has returned our home to an oasis of peace and tranquility. Thank you.